

◆ 2014 LENNOX VINEYARD

Pinot Noir | Russian River Valley

Lennox Vineyard is a new site for us here at Roger Roessler Wines. It's a stunning Russian River vineyard on the western reaches of the AVA. With a southern exposure and cooler climate, it's perfect for slowly ripening Pinot Noir.

Fruit for 2014 was picked at dawn when temperatures were at their coolest. All Dijon clones were hand harvested and sorted into 1.5 ton fermenters. The 667, 777 and 115 clones were all fermented separately, with all three going through a four-day cold soak and then a slow fermentation. Everything done in the cellar was aimed at preserving the freshness of this incredible fruit.

AROMA

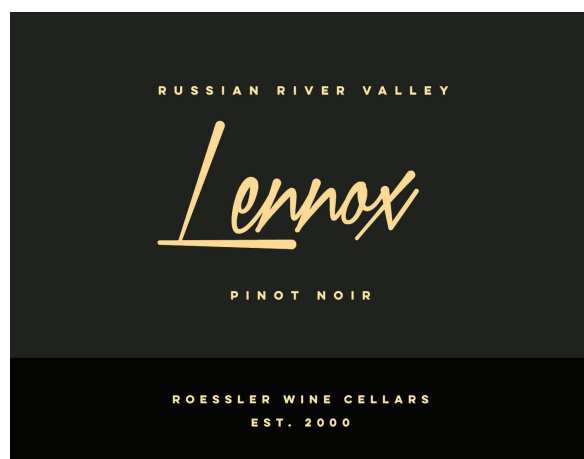

The nose has aromas of bright cherry, deep plum, as well as a pomegranate and cherry pipe tobacco.

PALATE

On the mouth, the tannins are completely integrated and make for a long and lush mouthfeel. Remarkably, the wine has fresh red berry and cola flavors as well as a lovely, sweet, dark cedar note to it that all interplay nicely. The Lennox bottling is drinking nicely now and will only continue developing in the cellar for the next four to five years.

FOOD PAIRING

Roasted Chicken with rosemary and garlic, Grilled Salmon, or double cream soft cheese.
