

◆ 2014 RED BIRDS

Pinot Noir | Sonoma Coast

Growing up in Columbia, Illinois, a small farming community just outside St. Louis, Richard and Roger Roessler had fond memories of the area and their favorite “Red Birds” that were so popular as they grew up. This wine pays homage to those memories as well as to the Sonoma Coast Pinot Noirs of yesteryear: wines of balance, intermingling both sweet, red fruit and bright acidity, taking in all the beautiful western-edge characteristics that Sonoma Coast has to offer.

Our 2014 Red Birds comes from a collection of four Russian River and Western Sonoma Coast vineyard sites. Because all of these sites are on the cooler side, the result is longer hang time and intense, fuller flavor development.

AROMA

The nose on this wine is full and deep with concentrated sweet dark plum, violet and black cherry aromas.

PALATE

This is a beautiful, multi-layered Pinot Noir. There are intense flavors of cassis, deep plum and cola nut as well as a graphite-infused minerality on the mid-palate stretching through the soft finish.

FOOD PAIRING

Prosciutto Quiche Loraine, pulled pork sliders, or even fish tacos.
