2013 Guidici Vineyard Pinot Noir
Sonoma Coast

The leader of the Roessler pack in this tasting, the Guidici bottling is both ripe and somewhat juicy at the same time with an insistent twist of strawberry preserves to its red cherry aromas. Sweet oak contributes here as well in both nose and mouth, and the early roundness on the palate does run into some firming acidity and tannin towards the back. If not a long-ager, and certainly a wine that could be enjoyed now, this one would not mind a brief bit of patient repose in the cellar.
